Detailed Action

This is the second Office Action corresponding to amendment filed Mar 14, 2005. The application contains 14 claims. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 10-13 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly by Kunick (D 457,239).

Kunick discloses an IV bag stand comprising a collapsible base (1) with a plurality of legs (2) carried by a telescopic member (3), a plurality of telescopic members (4), a C-shaped hanger (5), locking and stop means (6), and IV bag (7) as illustrated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bekanich (4,725,027) in view of Kunick (D 457,239).

The patent to Bekanich discloses an IV stand comprising a base (11) with a plurality of legs carried by a telescopic member (17), a plurality of vertical support members (14, 16), a hanger (13) for supporting IV bags, and lock and stop members (19, or 35).

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided the stand shown by Bekanich with a C-shaped hanger as shown by Kunick as an alternative type of hanger, and with a collapsible base to for example, save space during storage.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9 are allowable.

Claim 14 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that since Kunik is a design patent, a person skilled in the art would have not known how it works by just looking at it. The examiner understands that some mechanical devices are complicated enough that one skilled in the art would have needed to read the description of the invention to figure how the mode of operation. But this is not the case with Kunik's. By definition a person skilled in the art is an intelligent person, and one intelligent person with some mechanical inclination would clearly see that Kunik shows a collapsible stand, having a collapsible base for supporting an IV bag. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
